NOTICE*Date : 21-02-2026*Reporting and Verification after Online Fees Payment

All concerned students seeking admission to the various semester are hereby informed that after successful completion of online fees payment, it is mandatory to physically report to the College for verification and validation of payment records.

Students must bring the printed copy of the online fee payment receipt and report to the College office to obtain a "PAID" stamp on the receipt. The "PAID" stamp will be issued only after proper verification and reconciliation of the payment details with the College CMS Portal records.

Please note the following instructions carefully:

1. Online payment alone will not be treated as final confirmation of admission.
2. Physical reporting to the College is compulsory for official validation.
3. The "PAID" stamp must be obtained from Mr. Satyajit Hait after verification.
4. Students are advised to keep multiple photocopies of the stamped receipt for future reference.

All students are directed to comply with the above procedure within the stipulated admission schedule, failing which their admission may be treated as incomplete.
